By virtue of a decree of the Circuit Court of the United States for the District of South Carolina, dated November 20th, 1893, the South Carolina Railway is to be sold at public auction in Charleston, South Carolina. on April 12th, 1894. The minimum bid provided by the decree is $1,000,000. It is to the interest of the junior security-holders to purchase the property at the lowest possible figure, and it is to your interest to purchase it yourselves rather than allow the property to be sold for less than the amount of the FP it Consolidated Mortgage and accumulated interest and prior liens and charges. The prior mortgage amounts to about two hundred and forty-four thousand dollars and interest from November 23td 1802.

The undersigned Committee, which for four years past has been acting in the interest of such of the 1st Consolidated Mortgage Bondholders as it represents, considers the property amply worth the full amount of the 1st Consolidated Mortgage, with interest and all prior charges. It is essential for the protection of the 1st Consolidated Mortgage Bondholders that proper preparation be made to prevent the read being purchased in the interest of the junior securities at a price which would yield less than par and interest to the 1st Consolidated Mortgage Bondholders.
